Located in Arinsal, in the area leading up towards the ski slopes, this 4,995 m² plot represents a unique opportunity in one of Andorra's most attractive mountain settings. The property currently features two traditional bordas, adding distinctive character to the estate: one measuring approximately 113 m² and the other 16 m². The land is classified as developable land, offering interesting development potential, always subject to the applicable planning regulations and the relevant authorisations. Its mountain setting and proximity to the Arinsal ski slopes make this property an attractive opportunity for those seeking a plot with character, development potential and a privileged location in Andorra. A property with a distinctive identity and significant potential, combining nature, mountain surroundings and proximity to one of the Principality's leading ski destinations.
